SITUATION

Overton Farm is situated to the North East of Denny at approximately 179m above sea level, to the south of the River Carron, a site of special scientific interest.

The area is well resourced in terms of agricultural infrastructure, being served by a number of grain merchants, agricultural suppliers and machinery dealers in addition to an active machinery ring. Auction Marts and abattoirs can be found in Stirling.

The surrounding countryside of the Carron Valley is well regarded for outdoor pursuits with hacking routes, countryside walks and cycling routes nearby.

The village amenities of Denny are within 3 miles of the property, providing shopping for everyday needs and primary schooling. The secondary schooling for the area is Denny High School.

The property is ideally placed to access the amenities of both Falkirk and Stirling which include High Street shops, edge of town retailers, business amenities and sports / leisure facilities.

Edinburgh and Glasgow are within easy reach of the subjects via the M9 / M876 / M80 motorway network which are only 3 miles from the property. Edinburgh and Glasgow airports are also readily accessible by road.

DESCRIPTION

Overton Farm has been in the same family ownership for many generations. It has predominantly served as a beef cattle farm with some sheep grazing. The farm is being offered for sale in three separate lots or as a whole.

The land is predominantly comprised of grasslands, and has been used for cattle grazing in recent years. The land is undulating and lies at approximately 150 — 179 metres above sea level. The land is shown on the Hutton Institute Land Capability for Agriculture Plans as being predominantly of Class 3.2 in quality and as such is deemed to be suitable for the growing of grass for grazing purposes and to have some limited potential for cropping. It is recognised that the area may offer significant woodland planting potential, especially for native species. The land has F2 & F3 Class status on the National Soil Map for Scotland in relation to the capability which offers good flexibility for the growth and management of tree crops. The soils are described on the Hutton Institute Soil Plans as being non-calcareous gleys of the Rowanhill Soil Association. Field boundaries consist mainly of post and wire fencing with good access from the B818 and minor roads to the south connecting to Denny.

Lot 1: Field 1: Approximately 16.95 acres

Lot 1 is identified as the most westerly field, outlined in blue on the sales plan. In addition to the environmental and agricultural value, this field may also hold amenity value with a charming B Listed bridge over the Faughlin Burn. It is in close proximity to the hutters by the Takmadoon Road and the reservoir offering fishing. Whilst there are no planning consents on the site, it has vehicular access and may appeal to a private individual who wants to explore the potential for further shepherds hut on the site or there may be tourism to be provided for in the area in terms of a campsite, all subject to obtaining the necessary consents. This is also an interesting site for buyers looking to acquire parcels of land for biodiversity net gain or woodland creation projects.

The land is classed as 5.2 for agriculture and class F4 for forestry according to the James Hutton Institute. The land is affected by surface water flooding on the eastern and western boundary, identified on the current SEPA flood maps.

Lot 2: Fields 19, 21 & 22: Approximately 38.87 acres

Lot 2 is identified as the most northerly fields, outlined in black on the sales plan. The land is all parcelled together on the north of the B818, separating it from the lands surrounding Overton Farm. The soil is classed as 4.2 for agriculture and class F3 for forestry according to the James Hutton Institute. The land is affected by areas of surface water flooding identified on the current SEPA flood maps. The land is suitable for arable, silage cropping and permanent grazing to support livestock enterprises. There are also a wealth of opportunities across this land to establish nature based projects to improve biodiversity net gain and carbon capture. The northern boundary of Field 19 sits within the Carron Valley, an area of special scientific interest.

Lot 3: House, outbuildings and land extending to approximately 368.66 acres

Lot 3 is outlined in red on the sales plan. The farmhouse, sits next to the outbuildings, central to the holding. This vacant property is now presented for modernisation and development throughout. The Farmhouse extends to approximately 2489 sq ft (232 square metres).

The accommodation comprises:
Ground Floor: Entrance vestibule. Shower room with WC and WHB. Kitchen. Dining Room. Sitting Room. Bedroom 1. Bedroom 2.
First Floor: 3 Further Bedrooms. Linen Store. Family bathroom (bath, WC and WHB).

The land extends to approximately 388.66 acres and is parcelled to the south of the B818, as outlined in red on the sales plan, surrounding Overton Farmhouse and outbuildings, with good access. A former quarry is situated on field 27. The soil is classed as 4.2 for agriculture and class F3 for forestry according to the James Hutton Institute. The land is affected by areas of surface water flooding identified on the current SEPA flood maps. The land is capable of a mixed livestock and arable enterprise. There are also a wealth of opportunities across this land to establish nature based projects to improve biodiversity net gain and carbon capture, the fields to the west are indicated on the HabMoS EUNIS Land Cover Scotland Map to have category D1 areas (raised and blanket bogs). Field 15 contains a steading ruin. Field 31 borders a housing estate within the town of Fankerton, to the north west of Denny. Field 3, 4, 5, 8 and 9 are within a Site of Scientific Interest.

ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGNATIONS AND GRANT SCHEMES

Field 1 is by a category B listed Bridge: <https://canmore.org.uk/site/141927/faughlin-burn-bridge>. Historic maps reference a well on field 15. Field 25 is closest to Myot Hill, a monument to an Iron Age fort (Further details available through Historic Environment Scotland reference SM2381). The Carron Valley is an area of Special Scientific Interest. We have not been made aware of any grant schemes over the land or further designations.

BASIC PAYMENT SCHEME (BPS)

The majority of the land is eligible for claiming Basic Payments. The BPS entitlements have been established by the seller but are not included in the sale of the land. The buyer will take over and pay for at valuation the Basic Payment Scheme entitlements established on the land for sale. All payments relating to the 2025 year will be retained by the seller. The buyer will be responsible upon occupation of the subjects of sale to fully comply with the statutory management requirements to maintain the farmland in Good Agricultural and Environmental Condition as laid down under the cross Compliance Rules of the Basic Payment Scheme 2025 for the rest of the scheme year.

IACS

All the farmland is registered for IACS purposes.

LESS-FAVOURED AREA SUPPORT SCHEME (LFASS)

All of the land has been designated as being within a Less Favoured Area.
