LOCATION:

Longniddry is a coastal village in East Lothian with an estimated population of 2,500 people. Longniddry further lies approximately 6 miles east of Musselburgh along the B1361/A198 and 12 miles east of Edinburgh City Centre, on the southern shores of the Firth of Forth.

Wheatrig Business Hub itself is specifically located at Wheatrig Farm, which is situated less than 2 miles from the village centre of Longniddry. Longniddry train station is further situated within the village centre, both of which are within a few minutes' drive of the village centre.

Wheatrig Business Hub can be easily accessed off the B6363 to the west, or the B1377 to the north, with the access junction to the property approximately 1 mile from each direction. The farm and Business Hub itself is clearly sign posted at the turning junction, with direct access to the property found along the farm road.

DESCRIPTION:

The subjects comprise a former barn/steading premises, which has recently been converted to an exceptional standard into 3 individual offices spaces, along with a flexible co-working space.

Access is taken via a newly converted timber framed and double glazed corridor attached to the side of the conversion, which provides access to the internal offices, kitchenette area, shower room, W/C and accessible W/C. The property itself is constructed via original/traditional stone and comprises a new profile metal sheet roof.

A shared kitchenette is further finished to an excellent standard with original stone flooring, base and wall mounted kitchen units, dining room table and chairs, fridge freezer and already provided tea and coffee facilities. The W/C, accessible W/C and shower room further are accessed off the kitchenette area.
