Location

The property lies in a rural location to the north west of Forres, a charming historical town located just off the stunning Moray Coast, in the northeast of Scotland. The location is approximately 25 miles northeast of Inverness and 8 miles west of Elgin, within easy reach of the fabulous beaches of Findhorn and Roseisle beach, yet only 30 miles from Inverness International Airport.

Forres is renowned for its floral gardens and picturesque historic high street, making it a delightful place to visit and live. It also provides a range of facilities and amenities, with the larger centre of Elgin and the City of Inverness also lying within easy reach.

From the Moray Coast access can be gained to Speyside, Loch Ness, the North Coast 500, Royal Deeside, and the Cairngorms. This accessibility makes it a prime location for those looking to experience the best of Scotland's natural beauty and rich heritage. The nearby River Findhorn also offers scenic beauty and outdoor recreational opportunities.

Description

The Kinloss Country Golf Club is a well-maintained facility featuring a clubhouse (GIA 129.2 square metres), car park, a nine-hole golf course. The site spans approximately 16.45 hectares (40.66 acres) in total. The course is defined by hedges and post and wire fences.

The clubhouse, positioned at the entrance of the property, is constructed with a timber frame and is well-equipped to cater to members and guests. Inside, the clubhouse is divided into several functional areas, including an entrance/reception, a comfortable lounge and bar, a kitchen, WC facilities, and changing rooms.

EPC: A copy of the Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) for the clubhouse is available upon request. The current rating is F92.

Heating: Oil Central Heating

Electricity: Mains

Drainage: Septic tank

Water: Mains

Broadband: Purchasers should make their own enquiries about connections in the local area

The Golf Course has been closed since 2020 (due to development of dwelling houses within the grounds). However, it has been well maintained by the current owners and includes a number of attractive, sloping fairways together with belts of established woodland.

Planning consent has been issued for conversion to residential use. Further information is available on the Moray Council planning portal: 22/00190/APP External and internal alterations and change of use of clubhouse to dwellinghouse at Kinloss Country Golf Club Kinloss Forres Moray.

Lot 3 — The Proposed Holiday Park

The proposed holiday park is contained within a site extending to approximately 3.46 Ha (8.56 acres) and forms the eastern part of the property. Planning permission is in place for the construction of 16 holiday lodges(which can be occupied for 11 months of the year), the sites for which have been established, with some services installed.

There is also approval for 6 glamping pods within a wooded site to the rear. Planning reference:21/01060/APP. Lot 2 has a 90 mm main of water recently installed along with an SSE power supply for 16 lodges and 6 glamping pods. Ducting is also in place for BT fibre optic. Drainage is proposed by means of a small treatment plant, this is not installed but referenced within the planning permission. The overall site lies in an elevated position benefiting from an attractive outlook over the surrounding countryside and good access from the public road.

Offers

Offers must be submitted in Scottish legal terms to the Selling Agents. A closing date for offers may be fixed and prospective purchasers are advised to register their interest with the Selling Agents following inspection. Whilst every effort will be made to ensure that parties having registered their interest will be notified of a closing date this cannot be guaranteed. It should be noted that the vendor reserves the right to accept offers prior to a closing date being set. In addition, the seller reserves the right to not accept the highest or indeed any offer.

Anti-Money Laundering Compliance

DM Hall is regulated by HMRC in its compliance with the UK Money Laundering under the 5th Directive of the Money Laundering Regulations, effective from 10th January 2020, the selling agents are required to undertake due diligence on property purchasers. In terms of these Regulations, we are obliged to decline any offer received unless we are in possession of satisfactory evidence of the identity of the buyer. We will request information, consistent with the Regulations, to help us identify the successful bidder before acceptance. If sufficient information is not received, we must decline it. We will accept such information from a third party only when supplied to us by Solicitor or Chartered Accountant who will be asked to supply the compliance documents and confirm that they have identified the party consistent with the Money Laundering Regulations. We will not rely upon documents supplied by any other party. Any photo ID must be endorsed with the words, "I certify that this is a true likeness" and signed accordingly. Where satisfactory evidence is not obtained, the buyers offer must be declined and, where suspicion arises, the Money Laundering Reporting Officer advised. Unless required by any other enactment, or as otherwise agreed, documents supplied will only be used for the purposes of compliance with the Money Laundering Regulations.
